PRESS RELEASE: CVIP to Host Candidate Forum for May 2026 Primary

Chiloquin, Oregon – April 20, 2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Community members are invited to attend the upcoming Candidates Forum for the May 2026 Primary Election, scheduled for Friday, April 24, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the Chiloquin Community Center.

The forum will provide an opportunity for voters to hear directly from candidates running for Klamath County Commissioner. This moderated event is designed to provide a fair and respectful setting in which candidates can share their perspectives, discuss key issues, and respond to questions from the community.

The forum will be moderated by Christopher German, host of Coffee with the Candidates, who is a journalist and filmmaker here in Klamath County. He has interviewed many of the candidates running for office in this election, and as such, has a thorough understanding of the issues and challenges facing Klamath County residents.

Community members are encouraged to attend in person. An online viewing option will also be available for those unable to attend; register to view the online version at <https://bit.ly/419iDGM>.

In advance of the forum, residents are invited to submit questions for consideration by scanning the event QR code or visiting: <https://forms.office.com/r/K4vQiuNvD2>.

Candidate profiles are also available online to help voters learn more ahead of the event. To view candidate information and additional details about the forum, visit: <https://www.chiloquinvisions.com/election/>.

“This forum is an important opportunity for our community to engage with candidates, learn about the issues, and make informed decisions,” said Robert Cowie. “We encourage everyone to participate, whether in person or online.”
