Governance, Capital Improvements, Arts & Entertainment:

- Goldfield Trading Post

Hans Bennewitz and Jeremy Stanger completed the Goldfield Trading Post mural the first week of May with the finishing touches to the well-received work. On Tuesday, May 12 the artists, proper owner Bret Bair, and DRP board members (Dave Piches, MaryTess Mayall, Lisa Peters, and Wayne Wiley) and additional stakeholders and community members gathered for an informal meet-n-greet and viewing.

- Atlantic St CMU

Blue Line Arts is prepared to move forward with a mural on the Atlantic St CMU located behind Goldfield Trading Post, when the City of Roseville is ready.

- Randy Peters Catering

Lisa and Randy Peters continue maintenance work on their wall in preparation for a mural installation.

- The Grab Lab

In conversation with Mark Vespoli for a possible mural on the newly opened Grab Lab, located at 10 S Grant St.

- Downtown Oak Street Lot

Blue Line Arts is in conversation with the City of Roseville Office of Economic Development and Office of Alternative Transportation to implement a new Public Art concept in the downtown lot on Oak Street, just north of the Downtown Pedestrian Bridge.
