Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi's Blazzin The Way To Mountain States Title

By Tanya Randall

Three-time WPRA World Champion Brittany Pozzi Tonozzi and her 5-year-old homebred stallion Blazzin The Way ("Fireball") put 7/10ths on the field to win a $9,555 championship at the Mountain States Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 23-24 in Loveland, Colorado.

Fireball, who won the Elite and Ruby Buckle Central futurities earlier this year, made his indoor rodeo performance debut, placing second in the first round, and never looked back. He won the second round in 16.48 and daylighted the field to take the third in 16.06.

"The first day I could feel the uncertainness, just a little bit of looking around," Tonozzi noted. "The second day, he locked on."

Tonozzi contemplated riding her daughter Tinley's horse in the third round since it would have been Fireball's second of the day with a matinee and evening performance, but her husband Garrett vetoed that idea immediately.

"We had a family meeting," Tonozzi chuckled, "and Garrett was like, 'Absolutely not!"

A son of WPRA World Champion Sire Blazin Jetolena, Fireball is out of Tonozzi's homebred NFR mare, Ima Famous Babe ("Katniss"). By Dash Ta Fame, Katniss is out of Tonozzi's 1.6 million dollar producer Streakin Six Babe, by Streakin Six.

"Genetics are a crazy thing," said Tonozzi. "He got the goods from both sides."

She said that barrel racing is effortless for the stallion.

"Katniss was kind of wild," Tonozzi recalled of the late mare. "She was so fast. I've never felt a horse be able to run between the first and second barrel like she could. It was insane how she would cover ground and like speed up going across the pen, but her feet would get wild.

"He is so controlled. He knows exactly where his feet are at all times and he places them in the perfect spot. Like in the last round, I was out of position in a straight line at the first barrel, like I'm running straight at it. It didn't matter. He just took care of me."

His name Fireball is a complete misnomer for the calm, cool and collected stallion.

"I get off of him, loosen his girth and he just puts his head down and I lead him back to his stall and he's like, 'Yeah, that was nothing.'"

And it's been that way for him since the beginning.

"He's had half the training that all the other ones did," she said. "We roped on him first so that definitely helped in a certain way, but I don't think he would have been difficult if we hadn't. We roped on him because I wanted him to have really good manners. Garrett did a really great job with him there too."

QData has Fireball's earnings at $137,804 prior to the Circuit Finals. He ran a little more than a handful of rodeos this summer, drawing checks at Fallon, Nevada, the NFR Open, Laramie, Wyoming, Bremerton, Washington, and Filer, Idaho.

Fireball will finish the year at the BFA World Championships and the OKC Futurity and will likely make the winter run for Tonozzi. The talented colt offers Tonozzi a great chance at wiping another goal off of her bucket list—winning a world championship on a homebred.

"That's next on the bucket list," she said. "He's definitely the type. What's incredible about this horse is he just makes it easy. Barrel racing shouldn't be as hard as a lot of horses make it. He just simplifies everything.

"I'm very realistic about horses and their ability. There are things they are and things they aren't, but he is just perfection to me. And I love him. That word is not used strongly around our barn because they always tend to break your heart, but I do love him."

In The Nick A Time for Lindsey Muggli at the California Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Just .01 gave Lindsey Muggli of Lane, Oklahoma, and her appropriately named mare In The Nick A Time ("Movado") an $8,412 championship at the California Circuit Finals Rodeo, held October 23-25 in Clements.

Muggli, who said her mare runs better inside, was looking forward to the small confines of the indoor in Red Bluff, was a little intimidated by the huge pen in Clements, which hosted the circuit finals for the first time.

"Movado does great outside, but she really excels in buildings," she said. "With Clements, I was told it was one of the biggest arenas in California. I was like, 'Oh gosh! I'm getting better but I'm not that confident in huge setups on her."

Mother nature also forced the committee to work extra hard with seasonal rain showers showing up a little earlier than normal.

"The committee had the ground amazing for us," Muggli noted.

Muggli and Movado mastered the mud, taking first in the opening round.

"I call her my true, blue rodeo horse," she said. "When the ground is not in the best condition and everybody else is a little worried about it, she loves it."

They followed it up with second in the next round.

"The second round, we were bottom of the ground," Muggli said. "It was a little deeper than it was since it had dried out some." They were a few holes out of the money in the third but secured the aggregate.

"The third round, I didn't ride her as good," Muggli said. "We

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIME: "She keeps herself pretty in shape. She needs to be rode more for her mind. She needs to be doing something every day. At home, we have a lot of cattle, so I ride out a lot. I never ride in my arena. I use the round pen a lot. I do a lot of dressage drills on her just to make sure she's moving correctly. I'll do that two to three times a week. Usually the day before I go somewhere, I'll lope some circles, but I do a lot out of the arena."
SPONSORS: Classic Equine, Flair Strips, Complete Equine Performance (CEP), Frost Ranch Wear
THANKS: "My sister Jenna Dana for helping me out the last three weeks. She's been my home away from home in California. I've been at her place three to four months this year. Of course, my husband and my family. I couldn't do any of this without their help. It's been tremendous, especially my husband. He flies in every two weeks to see us and of course, he's my horseshoer. I'm grateful for him too."

were bottom of the ground again. It was a little deep for her, but we made a clean run and was able to get the average win."

Muggli said her 10-year-old mare worked great. She's had the Blazin Jetolena mare, out of Rollin Nickie, by As Good As Nick Gets, since picking her out of pasture at Busby Quarter Horses as an unstarted 2-year-old.

"When I was 18, Katie Pascoe sent me her gelding Junior (JR Naughty Jet) and I got him going," Muggli recalled. "He was an amazing horse and went on to be amazing with her. He was by Blazin Jetolena, and I was going to get me one!"

Movado was one of the first horses that she trained from the ground up herself.

"It wasn't easy by any means," she laughed. "But that's what makes our story really meaningful. She turned out to be gritty and tough. It made all the hard years worth it."

Muggli, the daughter of multiple National Finals Rodeo qualifier Michelle McLeod, grew up in California. The family relocated to Texas when she was 9, but her oldest sister Jenna Dana still lives near San Luis Obispo.

"It's kind of my home away from home," said Muggli. She and her husband Wyatt and their young son spent two months rodeoing in the state during the famed spring run in 2025.

"I just loved the rodeos and loved the atmosphere. It's April and May and the weather is beautiful, while it's storming back in Oklahoma. I got to counting and realized I could stay April and May and get my circuit count. Then June 1, I could go up to the Northwest." Muggli also introduced her 4-year-old futurity horse Slicketta, a daughter of the great Slick By Design out of the seven-figure producer Rods Last Ladybug, to rodeos very early in her career.

"The ground is great everywhere you go," she said. "It's really great to season colts and have them confident in a rodeo setting." Muggli, who works as an emergency room nurse back in Oklahoma, left her mare with her sister for the duration of the season.

"My mare has not been home since April 1," she said. "It's really important for my horses to be acclimated. The climate and altitude are different from Oklahoma. The humidity is so different. I just didn't want to bring her home."

Movado is now back home in Oklahoma for a two month break before the winter run of building rodeos.

"My biggest goal for 2026 was to try to get in the buildings," said Muggli, who finished the year No. 28 in the WPRA World Standings with $69,458. "To be honest, I've never really planned on rodeoing. I came out to California last year, just to have some fun and go to some rodeos. Then we started winning money, so we just kept entering. My mare got hurt in the summer—she cut her foot—and I came home for eight weeks.

"My mom was like, 'Hey, you should pay attention to the fall rodeos in 2025 to try to get in the standings for the building in 2026. I was able to get into Fort Worth, and I got into Austin as a replacement.

"June 1, I had about $40,000 won, and at that point, I was thinking I had a shot at the NFR if I had a good summer. Unfortunately, we had some soundness and soreness issues. Then we decided to focus on getting into the buildings (for 2027). I had a money goal set, and we were in the Top 32, right on the border. It came down to (winning) San Bernardino for me to get into the buildings." After the winter building rodeos, she'll be back to try to make her second California Circuit Finals.

She said, "I tell everyone, it's all in God's plan and whatever happens, happens."

Swint Wins NFR-Style Shootout in Athens, $14K

By Julie Mankin

Yvonne Skelton-Jones' mare StreakNMakesMeHyper ("Ari"), 13, sports the hallmark ribcage-leading turning style of her sire A Streak Of Fling – the fifth-leading all-time sire of barrel horses ($14.5 million in progeny earnings). And super-tight turns can make clean runs a challenge, but not last weekend.

In Athens, Texas, at the Elder Dodge NFR-Style Shootout on Oct. 23-25, Florida trainer Megan Swint piloted the left-barrel-first Ari to a good run of 13.9 on Friday that placed 12th in the Open. But the next day, they laid down a blistering 13.45 to not only win the Open, but also the Open Average, the High Roller race (for $7,542), and the High Fees 3D to leave Athens with a cool $14,483 total.

"Friday, she worked really good but got hung up a little around second and third," said Swint. "I knew she could clean it up. She's fast, man. If she's smooth, she's so fast. I definitely didn't think I'd run a .4 – I thought it might be like a .6. But she hit all her spots perfectly. Coming from those big patterns at the Pink Buckle and The Texan, that freed her up and she was easier to get around the barrels in that small pen."

It almost didn't happen. Swint had been disappointed at The Texan the prior weekend when Ari caught a barrel in one run and was exactly .041 seconds too fast to earn $75,000 as the 2D champ. "I was ready to throw my sucker in the dirt, even though she ran so good," said Swint, who raised two kids and operates MW Barrel Horses out of Dunnellon, Fla. "But Yvonne said, 'Nope, there are two good races next weekend. You're entered at Athens!'"

Swint's run Saturday was one of the smoothest she's ever made on Ari, she figures. The Skelton family bred and raised the mare out of their own mare Ms Hyper Dozen. She was by the Nonstop Jet son Mr Hyperspeed, whose dam was full Thoroughbred. And she was out of Magic Carlin, by a grandson of Easy Jet and Beduino out of a Special Effort/Rebel Cause mare.

"They raised like four or five out of that mare and every one of them turned out good," said Swint.

She first began running Ari for Skeltons in 2018, after which the mare was sold to Texas, and later sold back to Skelton-Jones. Swint went back to running her, but the mare tore a bicep muscle. At that point, she was bred to Repete Offender (that 2-year-old will go soon to Swint for training).

"Ari has always been super-fast but hard to keep clean," said Swint, a three-time qualifier to the Southeastern Circuit Finals Rodeo. "Now she's matured; I think having the baby did her some good."

Skelton-Jones jokes that if anybody ever buys Ari, they'll have to have enough money to also take Swint home. The good friends have been on a long journey with Swint fine-tuning her timing on Ari.

"You can't kick her; can just squeeze a little, and if you whip the mare she will back way off," said Swint. "You have to hold your reins steady because if you pull on an outside rein, she'll let completely off the gas. To be smooth, I need to use my hands and feet at the same time. And the moment you ask, she's going to do it right then. So, you cannot ask too early. I've made some really good runs on her, but my timing was perfect on Saturday!"

Swint has learned the mare takes any schooling literally.

"It took me a while to figure her out, because I wanted to work her wide and keep her further away from the barrels in slow work," said Swint. "But then I was hitting more and more barrels. So I tightened it up and had her turn exactly where I wanted her to go in the run, making her stay right there without coming or fading out. The trick is that the more pocket you give her, the more she leans toward the barrel. So, I've had to play around. Over the years, we've finally figured out exactly what she likes."

The duo will try to make some more perfect runs in Las Vegas at December's All In Barrel Race. In the meantime, Swint also runs a Feel The Sting daughter for Skelton-Jones, an Open horse of her own, and she just bought a 2027 futurity horse to campaign next month.

Youth Phenom Sawyer Wilkerson Wins $36K at Elder Dodge Shootout

At the Elder Dodge NFR Style Shootout the young phenom, Sawyer Wilkerson, rode her three horses to the high money position, banking $36,787! Her horses range from small cow horse to big barrel horse but they are all winners for her! We caught up with the future NFR cowgirl to get a little more info on her big weekend!

BRR: Can you walk us through your Friday Open winning run on QT JLS Brick House & your Sunday Open winning run on Dmac Hipmotize at the Elder Dodge shootout?
Wilkerson: Friday - I Just needed to ease her up into the alley and find my angle to the 1st barrel and drive her all the way to the 2nd, 3rd, and home.

Sunday - I went in needing to do a circle to the right and up the right side of the fence to help him get correct lead and then just drive him straight up to his spots and all the way home.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about each of your horses and what they have won in the past?
Wilkerson: Lil Bit, I have been riding for about 1.5 yrs thanks to my cousin Bella. He has taught me so much & has helped me accomplish so much. Most recently he placed 3rd at The Texan open & won the youth, qualified me for the Vegas Tuffest the last 2 years, won the. 8u barrels for LSHSRA 25-26yr, won the Big League Youth with J&J productions and many other wins!

Rockette, I got about 2 months ago and we've had success at Pink Buckle; Qualified for the American Semi Finals; and also placed 6th overall at the Texan open & 2nd in the youth open.

Kicker- I have had for about 6 months. We have placed at many barrels and jr rodeos. She got me qualified for my first Jr. NFR this year!

BRR: What did you do this past couple weeks to have your horses at their best?
Wilkerson: I have made sure they stayed exercised and feeling good. We've been on the road a lot this month and they've all stayed happy. I try to pasture ride as much as I can to keep their mind clear & happy.

BRR: How do you mentally prepare for big runs like this weekend prior to entering the arena?
Wilkerson: When I do exhibitions I go slow & try to find my spots in the arena for each horse. When I don't do exhibitions I just try to stay focus on what I need to do to help each horse.

BRR: How did you get started barrel racing?
Wilkerson: I sat on my first horse when I was about 2 months old and have loved horses since that day. I started out leading lining when I was 2 and ran at my first hometown rodeo by myself at age 3.

BRR: Who is your favorite barrel racer?
Kassie Mowry & Emily Biesel

BRR: What is the funniest thing each of your horses do?
Wilkerson: Lil Bit - he will buck when he's feeling fresh & I think it's funny
Rockette- very particular about her treats. Only eats a certain kind.
Kicker- she shakes her head everytime before she takes off in the alley

Western Fortunes Barrel Racing Incentive Crowns 2026 Year-End Champions

SHEZ FRENCH N FAMOUS, 2020 Mare by RNJ HECKOFAFRENCHMAN x KLU TA FAME owned by Randa &/or Mark Nugent and ridden by Cordy Cox. It turned out to be a very profitable year for owners, Randa &/or Mark Nugent to have this great 6-year old under the capable hands of rider, Cordy Cox. SHEZ FRENCH N FAMOUS with rider, Cordy Cox not only captured the 2026 Leading Offspring Award but proved they were a force to be reckoned with wherever they went. This team has won over $100,000 and pocketed $2,590.00 WF incentive money throughout the season plus another $1,500.00 in a Hi-Point Cash Award! (Attached Picture)

Shez French N Famous & Cordy Cox

Okanagan Falls, British Columbia Breeder, Wildwood Ranches claim the 2026 Western Fortunes Leading Breeder Award! The husband and wife team of Bill and Heidi Robinson not only have been honoured by the AQHA for 50 years of Breeding American Quarter Horses but Bill was the first person inducted into the Western Fortunes Legends Program. With some of the finest broodmares in the industry and a legacy that includes owning renowned stallions JET OF HONOR and GUYS CASANOVA COWBOY, is it any wonder this team continues to top the charts year after year!

The Leading Broodmare title goes to KLU TA FAME owned by Donna Beierbach of 1Y Quarter Horses. Donna and her husband, William bring a wealth of knowledge to their breeding program carefully selecting their mares based on performance, confirmation and pedigrees. They also stand Western Fortunes Legends Inductee, NINETY NINE GOLDMINE and the sire of the 2026 Western Fortunes Leading Offspring, RNJ HECKOFAFRENCHMAN. They also captured the 2026 runner up titles for the Sr. Leading Stallion and Breeder!!

Leading Jr. Stallion SILKY TA FAME, owned by Kirk R. & Gail Bridgeman of Bridgeman Land & Livestock Ltd., continues to prove his worth. He edged out top competition to earn $909.20 in Stallion Incentives, along with an additional $1,500 Hi-Point Cash Award.

The 2015 son of DASH TA FAME is already making an impact as a sire. With his first crop entering competition in 2024, SILKY TA FAME's progeny have surpassed $60,000 in earnings—an impressive milestone so early in his breeding career. Keep an eye on SILKY TA FAME offspring as more hit the arena in the coming years. The future is bright as he continues to establish himself as a sire of champions.

Leading Sr. Stallion, GUYS CASANOVA COWBOY reigned supreme again in 2026 winning $5,792.50 throughout the season and pocketing another $1,500.00 in a Hi-Point Cash Award! GUYS CASANOVA COWBOY'S progeny earnings surpassed $1.75 Million in 2026, ranking him among the top barrel sires in the EquiStat and QData standings!!

Congratulations to all the WF incentive winners in 2026 and we look forward to 2027!

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Mike has an old jeep with a souped up engine in it. If I had a clue about machinery, I'd tell you how much horsepower it has. Suffice it to say, he loves to go fast in it. Well, he goes fast in everything. I caught him down in the arena with the grand kids in it, spinning cookies. You could hear them all laughing and whooping clear up at the house! Should have spanked them all!

And on top of that, we live about ¼ mile from the high school. He's always racing kids!!!! So, it was really funny the other day when we went to town, this new car came up on us fast. Zipping around. Oh my, the race was on! Until I looked over. It was an old lady (about my age!) She was 10 and 2 on that steering wheel! Looking straight ahead. She was FOCUSED! I said, "Babe, it's an old woman……." He immediately let off the gas and we proceeded to town at a more sedate pace.

Moral of the story. The Bible tells us we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against the devil. Eph. 6:12. Maybe we think that a certain person is our enemy because they said something about us. It's not them. It's the devil they are listening to.

You see, people are not our enemy. If you have a situation with someone this week, look past them and put the blame where it belongs. And take authority over that rat. Jesus gave us that ability. Luke 10:19. It's good to know who you're racing against. And we always win.

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies.
