Kassie Mowry & KS This Goodbye Top Salty Lone Star Shootout Futurity

By Tanya Randall

New year, new ride, but the outcome is still the same. Fresh off a 1.3 million dollar year, Kassie Mowry was back in the winner's circle with KS This Goodbye, owned by Kris Gadbois, at the $25,000-added, 172-entry 70 Ranch Performance Horses Futurity at the Lone Star Shootout, held January 5-8 in the Circle T Arena in Hamilton, Texas. The victory was worth $13,711.

"I'm happy for Kris," said Mowry, who trains out of Dublin, Texas. "She's a great person to work with and I'm happy for her to have a horse like this."

Mowry, and the 5-year-old mare fortuitously named "Stella" like the all-time leading futurity horse Hello Stella, won the first round with a 15.453 and backed it with a solid 15.678 for seventh in the second. They won the aggregate by a mere 8/1,000ths of a second over Ashley Schafer and Chrome Plated Fame, owned by High Point Performance Horses.

"I thought she worked really solid," said Mowry. "I was happy with how she handled everything mentally. She hasn't ran anywhere since the BFA, so I didn't have a whole lot of expectations of her. I kind of let her go in there and cruise through to see where we were at with all these other futurities coming up. She's just so mature. She always has been. She didn't look around or balk at anything. She just went out there and did what she knew she should."

Bred by Larry and Bonnie Blain, Stella is from the magic cross of The Goodbye Lane on a Dash Ta Fame daughter. Her dam is BH Famous Snip, who is out of a Special Leader mare.

Mowry got Stella in the fall of her third year. She went through the same program as the rest of Mowry's 3-year-olds but was just a year older when doing so. When Mowry started exhibiting the mare mid- to late spring, she knew she had something special on her hands.

"She was one of the nicest 3-year-olds that I've ever started," said Mowry, who thought so highly of the mare that she's got an Epic Leader baby coming this spring thanks to embryo transfer. "She was the most naturally talented horse that I've ever trained." Mowry said the mare came on so easily that she didn't even make 10 trips to exhibition her the entire year.

"It was like maybe eight," she recalled. "Her second exhibition was so, so fast and then she came back and backed it up the next week. So, I backed way off of her. She literally came on that fast. She's that smart and that talented. It's just easy for her. I didn't take her a whole lot. I was a little bit like what do I do with her at this point. She was doing everything right. I don't want to slow her down or overwhelm her, so we just tucked her away. I just had it in my head that I didn't need to waste these runs."

Stella made her debut at the BFA World Championships, where she ran in the Futurity against other 4-year-olds that had campaigned all year. She picked up a 2D check in the second round. The Lone Star event was her second.

"She had a month off or longer after the BFA," said Mowry, who went to her third National Finals Rodeo during that time and won the WCRA's Cowtown Christmas. "I didn't really know what to expect, but I was really proud of her for how she handled things. That's how she's always been—she's ready."

Mowry wanted to thank Jodi Robertson and her crew for putting on such a great event.

"They do a heck of a job putting that futurity together," said Mowry. "I always appreciate them going the extra mile to give everybody a fair chance. They just go above and beyond."

Mowry believed that the ground prep was the key factor in having such a tight race. First through eighth in the aggregate were within a half-second of each other.

"They have the ground so even that everyone has a fair shot," she said. "That's what happens when the ground is so good. Everybody can go out there and make their best run. Plus, they always have it at a nice arena. It's a nice setup for the colts to run. They just put so much emphasis on the ground and I think that's key for such a tough futurity."

Rather than dragging the ground every five, which leaves the third person in the middle of the drag in reverse order, Robertson had her crew drag every four runs. Big drags were at 40 instead of 50.

"I do go back and look at where the fastest times were ran," Mowry noted, "and most of the time it's the first, second or third, more the first and second than anything, whether it's a futurity or rodeo. It does make a big difference. When you're dealing with a 1,000th of a second, it does matter."

Dustin Angelle & BR Cruella De Vil Top Lone Star Shootout Slot Race

By Tanya Randall

After BR Cruella De Vil left the arena with a no time in the opening round of the 70 Ranch Performances Horses Futurity at the Lone Star Shootout, held January 5-8 in the Circle T Arena in Hamilton, Texas, trainer and jockey Dustin Angelle knew he had nothing to lose by taking a shot on his second run.

It was a profitable one, accounting for $12,254.

Angelle and Cruella turned in a 15.357, the fastest time of the Futurity, to win the second round and have the best time of two runs for the $7,500 slot race victory.

"I knew if I wanted to get a check on her, she was going to have to be at the top," said Angelle, a Roberts, Louisiana, based trainer. "Since there was no average money for her, I was just going to take a chance and see if she could handle the pressure, and she did!"

Bred in the name of Gerald Baker, Cruella is owned by Baker's daughter Whitney and her husband Cole Davison. The 4-year-old red roan mare is by BHR Frenchies Socks out of the A Streak Of Fling mare BR Snow White, who is a maternal half-sister to Davison's stallion BR Golden Leader, by Confederate Leader. Both BR Snow White and BR Golden Leader are out of the multiple pro rodeo winning mare KN Docs Gray Gold.

Angelle started riding the mare a year ago.

"From the first time I went to (Whitney's) place to ride her and another colt, she was the one that I wanted to take home," said Angelle. "She was talented from the first time I rode her. I remember the first time I took her through the barrels, I told Whitney that if we could keep her mind together, she's so talented I knew she'd be able to get the job done.”

The quirky and fractious mare has been a challenge too since she was started under saddle.

“She’s probably the quirkiest mare I’ve ever had,” Angelle said. “They were concerned about what we would be able to do with her because she’s pretty fragile. Every little thing scares her. Sometimes it’s kind of hard to put the halter on her in the stall. She’s scared of herself. She’s super fractious. Whitney asked me to take her because they know we take our time with them and wouldn’t ask her for more than she could handle. She asked me to keep an open mind and if she didn’t work, that was fine. Just do the best I could with her.”

Cruella made her competitive debut at the BEA World Championship but tipped barrels to place in the Juvenile both days. She was a finalist at her second Futurity, the OKC Rookie, where she picked up $1,873.

Her career earnings in just three events is $14,127.

After winning the slot race, Angelle thought about late entering the Golden Buckle in Waco, but he ultimately decided to stick with his original plan of letting the mare rest. Her next futurity will be the Kinder Cup the first of February.

Sporer Wins Colorado vs. The World Title

If you have watching rodeo over the past several years, you have seen Brittney Sporer and her gritty paint mare, Paint. They have been winning throughout the country for several years eventually qualifying to the 2020 NFR. Sporer and her gritty mare started off the 2023 rodeo season with a bang; winning the CO vs. The World Rodeo in Denver, CO. Even though it doesn't count towards the world standings, it will sure give this team a boost heading into the winter Stock Show Rodeos! We caught up with Brittney to get some more info about her awesome paint mare and their big win!

BRR: Can you walk us through your runs at the CO vs The World?

Sporer: She was a little tight in the first round, tipping the first barrel but luckily it stayed up. My goal in the second round was just to go around the barrels so I didn't hit one. My husband called and said I made it real obvious that I didn't want to hit a barrel. I was going to get off her in the last round, but it's always hard to get off of her when she's working so well. With her having the winter off, I knew she would get better with more runs. When she over finished her third barrel in the last round, I couldn't help but smile on the way home.

THE RUNDOWN w/Brittney Sporer

Chicks Keen O Pocopoo (Paint, Paint Stick or Paint Donkey, depending on the day!)

She is a 16 year old APHA Mare, I believe she stands about 14.2 hands.

BIT: Custom O Ring by Kerry Kelley

HEADGEAR: No headgear but she always looks great in her Western Dove Tack set.

SADDLE: Robbie Phillips Saddle, custom to fit her

SADDLE PAD: 1" Kush 28x28 Best Ever Pad

LEG GEAR: Pro Orthopedic Fronts & Bells

SHOES: Ben Dukes has been doing an incredible job with her feet for several years now, he has been able to keep her the soundest. In the winter, I run an eventer up front and a lite rim behind, in the summer I run an eventer up front and a full rim behind.

FEED: Purina Ultium Competition or Performance 200

HAY: Alfalfa in the winter, Alfalfa/Grass in the summer.

SUPPLEMENTS: Vetline Equine- Race Today, Equilytes and Super Flex.

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: She loves her Zesterra anytime the weather changes and always during traveling. Dr. Ricky Osterloh at Signature Equine in Stephenville has played a huge role in keep her happy and healthy. I treat her often with my acuscope/myopulse and my friend Dusty works on her with her magnawave as well. My husband keeps her adjusted when she needs it.

TRAINING/CONDITIONING: 5-6 days a week, riding, trail riding and lunging. She might see the barrels if I need to keep her soft and opened up.

SPONSORS: Western Legacy Company, Robbie Phillips Saddlery, Best Ever Pads, Rockstar Reins, Uncle Buck Rodeo Wear, Zesterra by Pro Earth Animal Health, Vetline Equine, Delicious Horse Treats, Tx Pro Orthopedic Equine/ Meghan Thiem

BRR: We know you have shared it before, but could you share with us the story of how you came across your amazing paint mare?

Sporer: In 2015, I ran Paint's maternal sister and won a lot on her. In 2016, My friends offered me to run Paint to see if I could get her seasoned and exposed to more jackpots while her owner was entering the military. When she started doing well, I decided to play around with some amateur & pro rodeos. That fall, we won the average at the amateur finals. The next few years I shared her off and on with her owner at time. When she got hurt, she came back to me in 2019 to leg up and I bought her a few months later.

BRR: Everyone watching can see how little and hard trying she is, tell us what makes this mare so special and what has let her win so much?

Sporer: She truly loves her job, her previous owners/my friends did an outstanding job of letting her just enjoy life. She never got pushed, all of her western pleasure and trail riding the first 9 years of her life really helped her mind. She isn't the smartest horse so I feel like that's what let's her win so much. She never overthinks anything or tries to outsmart me. She does her job every single time, occasionally the light bulb is off and she forgets what she's doing. It makes me laugh and we just continue entering.

BRR: What are a few things you do with her to keep her at her peak?

Sporer: I let her be a horse, she isn't kept in a fancy barn or stall. She shares a bigger pen in Texas with my mare Pei and when we go to Wyoming, they live out in the pasture on top of our hill. I will let my daughter exercise her, go trail ride her or I will lunge her. She hardly ever sees a barrel, I may just lope around one barrel to keep her paying attention.

BRR: Can you share a few of your big wins on her over the years?

Sporer: I have so many great memories on her. It all started in 2016 winning the CCPRA finals average title and the 2nd round at the CA Circuit Finals. She has so many rodeo wins and go round wins it's hard to keep track. From Fort Worth to San Antonio to Calgary. To placing in the rounds at the 2020 NFR. But the most fun I've ever had would be winning all three rounds, the average and the year end at the Montana Circuit Finals last year.

BRR: What are your future plans throughout 2023?

Sporer: Our plan right now is to go to all the winter rodeos that I got qualified for. I'd love to make another run for the NFR but I don't have the horses to help Paint do it. I will be looking to lease something for the summer. We will head north in June and try to make the Montana Circuit Finals again. I want to try and make the Canadian Finals as well.

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Sporer: Dr. Pepper, Hot Cheetos and Country Music. In the summer it would be a tire iron, two spare tires and an extra can of diesel.

Andre Coelho & Tiny Bit Of Pressure Dominate BRN4D MVP Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Andre Coelho dominated the $25,000-added, 154-entry BRN4D MVP Futurity, held January 6-8 at the South Buckeye Equestrian Center in Buckeye, Arizona, aboard Bill and Cheryl Kennedy's Tiny Bit Of Pressure.

The Bennett, Colorado, based team swept the two-round futurity to win the aggregate by more than a half-second. The victory was worth $10,548. Carryover earnings bumped their total to $13,200.

"I had a blast!" said Coelho, the Brazilian-born trainer and jockey. "I feel blessed to ride and train that horse. I think we have a bright future together."

Coelho and "No Pressure" put together two incredibly consistent runs of 16.910 and 16.937.

"The first round I was bottom of the ground," Coelho explained. "I knew he could do a really nice run, but I wasn't expecting him to do 16 seconds on a standard pattern. It was only his third race we entered and he'd never been in a big pen before. He'd just run 14- and 15-second patterns. It was his first time on a standard."

"When he turned his first barrel, I thought he could clock really, really fast because he has a long stride and really fast turns. I just focused on staying quiet and staying out of his way and trusting the process and letting him do his job. He surprised me with a 16.9."

"The second round I was top of the ground and I knew all I needed was a clean run. I didn't ask him for much because he's a free-runner and super-fast. His turns were even better than the first round. He was pretty consistent. We ended up with another 16.9." The 4-year-old gelding was raised by the Kennedy's at their Smoke

Creek Quarter Horses. He is by proven performer and champion sire No Pressure On Me, who has offspring earnings of more than $610,000, according to QData, and out of SF Tiny Bit Of Fame, by Dash Ta Fame.

No Pressure is the third futurity champion produced by SF Tiny Bit Of Fame for the Kennedys. Her other winners include 5 State Futurity Champion Tinys Stormy Weather and Colorado Classic Champion Famous Lady Pistol, both by Frenchmans Guy. Coelho started training No Pressure shortly after he had his first few rides under saddle.

"That horse was, and still is, a little bit of a challenge," said Coelho. "He's the kind of horse that needs a lot of miles before I run because he has too much energy. He's not mature yet. He still thinks he's a kid yet and wants to play around. He doesn't have much focus on the job. When I'm going to run him, I kind of over warm him up to get his focus and mind to settle down. Some days I ride him twice. I'm not hard on him but I have to ride him a lot to make sure I have his attention."

Coelho and No Pressure made their competitive debut at the BFA World Championships in November. They were sixth in the Juvenile average and third in the Future Fortunes Juvenile Sire's Slots for total earnings of $19,074.

Now their total earnings in just four events stands at $32,274. Coelho also placed seventh in the futurity average aboard the Kennedy's homebred 4-year-old Espresso Again. The Vanilla Latte, Bully Bullion mare earned $3,077.

NFR Will Return to Vegas for 2023

The 65th National Finals Rodeo will return to the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, Dec. 7-16, 2023. The 10 nights of competition will feature the top 120 contestants in the world vying for a coveted PRCA World Championship. They will also be competing for their share of the $10.9 million purse, which set a record in 2022.

RodeoHouston Announces 2023 Educational Commitment of $22.5 Million

Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo officials recently approved an educational commitment of $22,560,562 to support Texas youth and statewide educational programs in 2023. A majority of the funds will be administered through more than 800 scholarships valued at $14,286,000.

"Our 2023 educational commitment continues to grow, and we are excited to announce that our total educational commitment since 1932 now exceeds $575 million," said Chris Boleman, Rodeo President, and CEO in a press release. "The commitment we have to supporting Texas youth and education has been unwavering and we are so grateful to our 35,000 volunteers, sponsors, partners, donors and the Houston community who help support our mission."

The Rodeo's 2023 educational commitment will award more than $14.2 million in scholarships, more than $5 million to junior show exhibitors, more than $2.5 million in educational program grants and more than $464,000 toward graduate assistantship programs.

The 2023 educational commitment is as follows:

Scholarships: $14,286,000; Junior Show Exhibitors: $5,292,250; Educational Program Grants: $2,517,722; Graduate Assistantships: $464,590

Total: $22,560,562

More than 800 scholarships will be awarded through the Rodeo's scholarship programs in 2023. As one of the largest scholarship providers in the U.S., the Rodeo has presented more than 20,000 scholarships valued at more than $275 million since 1957.

Rodeo scholarship applications are now open online through Jan. 31, 2023. For full eligibility requirements, or to apply online, visit rodeohouston.com.

Education extends beyond the classroom, which is why the Rodeo supports students who demonstrate leadership as members of Texas 4-H or FFA. Each year, The Houston Livestock Show™ draws thousands of Texas 4-H and FFA exhibitors to compete at the world's largest livestock show, each hoping to take home the coveted title of Houston Champion. Sizable prizes and premiums will be awarded to junior show exhibitors, including calf scramble contestants who participate in the 2023 Houston Livestock Show. Since 1932, nearly $200 million has been committed to exhibitors through premiums and calf scramble certificates.

Grants are awarded to 501(c)(3) charities and accredited institutions of higher education that align with the Rodeo's mission. The Rodeo's 2023 grant recipients include the Barbara Bush Houston Literacy Foundation, Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Houston, Houston Ballet, King Ranch Institute for Ranch Management, and the Texas Wildlife Association Foundation, among others. To view the complete list, visit rodeohouston.com. To date, the Rodeo has presented over $86 million in research, grants, and educational programs to more than 100 organizations and institutions in Texas.

Funds are awarded to graduate assistantship programs at 11 Texas universities, with each university program given the opportunity to administer the application and selection process. The selected universities for 2023 include: Angelo State University, Sam Houston State University, Stephen F. Austin State University, Sul Ross State University, Tarleton State University, Texas A&M University, Texas A&M University – Commerce, Texas A&M University – Kingsville, Texas State University, Texas Tech University and West Texas A&M University. Since the 1970s, more than $15 million has been awarded to graduate assistantship programs in Texas.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

We've all had the thought that no one knows what we're going through. Self pity rises up and we think we're alone in our trouble. In those times, it seems like life is hard and we're not sure just how we're going to make it. We whine that our prayers aren't being heard.

I hate those times. Personally, I like it when everything is going good and I don't have to work at getting through a day. Easy peasy lemon squeezy! It's not very realistic. It's also not true that we're alone.

Is Jesus our Lord? If so, our prayers don't have to get any higher than our noses... because the ANSWER is on the inside of us! JESUS. He knows what we're going through.

The Bible says He was tempted in all things like we are. Read Hebrews 4:14-16.

Verse 15 promises He sympathizes with us. Verse 16 goes on to say that we can come boldly to the throne of grace where we will find mercy and grace to help us.

We are NEVER alone. We are NEVER without help.

Go out this week confident that He's there, leading and guiding and seeing us through!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
