

HISTORIC PRESERVATION MONTH

Scavenger Hunt

*Grab a Historic Walking Brochure and “hunt” your way through Downtown Rock Springs

1. Where could you find "spirits above and spirits below"
2. Butch Cassidy's Attorney had his office here
3. This building had a special design because it was built directly over old coal mine tunnels
4. This building was the site of the Annual Grape Harvest Festival
5. This building displays the most extensive use of terra cotta in southwest Wyoming
6. Calamity Jane worked here in the 1880's
7. This space was called “Bunning’s Folly” and was where early residents lived in dugouts
8. This street was described by National Geographic Magazine as a place where you could see French bakeries, Mexican chili parlors, a Greek Candy shop, Chinese laundries, and Jewish markets.
9. If you wanted to pay your bill but fear mouse traps You must be here.
10. A restored historic building in Downtown Rock Springs
11. This café changed its name in protest of the German Empire during WWI
12. An iconic Rock Springs ghost sign (old hand-painted advertising signs that have been preserved)

Bring your completed scavenger hunt to the Rock Springs Historical Museum (201 B Street) for a small prize and to be entered into the grand prize drawing.

Please complete the following to be eligible for the grand prize:

Name: _____

Phone: _____ ZIP: _____

Email: _____

Rock Springs Historic Preservation Commission

