Boards & Committees

Although we are not currently seeking new Board Members, as an MFCDA Member, you are entitled to nominating yourself or somebody else to a position on our Boards of Directors.

Nominating someone from your organization to our Board(s) of Directors ensures that your company's interests are represented at our meetings which are critical to community planning, and that you are the first to know about community happenings. The Board has the task of overseeing the broader organizational structure to ensure that the vision and mission is true to the implementation measures be taken. Board Membership is an indication of an organization's leadership abilities, dedication to bettering the community, and philanthropic core values.

_____ Interested in nominating a Board Member?

If so, who? _____

How should we reach out to this person(s)? _____

Nominating someone from your organization to one of our Committees ensures more visibility for your company within the community and ensures that your company has as many business opportunities as possible arising out of community engagement. Committees are at the forefront of positive change and impact in the community by implementing community beautification measures, planning events for families and citizens, and acquiring funds and support to accomplish these tasks. Committee Membership is also an indication of an organization's dedication to actively bettering the community and philanthropic core values.
