

Natalie Covington is originally from Vancouver, Canada. She came to Whidbey Island with her husband and 3 children to start a family business, which has become known as Mad Batter Bakehouse in the downtown district of Oak Harbor.

Natalie has always loved being involved with her community. In her earlier days, she was the PAC Chairperson as well as a PEC board member of her daughters' private school. Additionally, as a Committee Chairperson in her son's private school, she was responsible for hosting sports events and large fundraisers.

For years, Natalie has helped raise money for local programs that grant financial aid to underprivileged kids. Community means everything to her, and she looks forward to serving the wonderful community of Oak Harbor!
