Ashley Schafer & Fames Dashing Jet Top Run At The Rose Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Multiple futurity champion and leading rider Ashley Schafer made Fames Dashing Jet ("Ultra") a second generation futurity champion with a $7,367 victory at the $15,000-added HHA Futurity at the Run At The Rose, held June 9-11 in Montrose, Colorado.

Ultra is a generational winner for her owner and breeder Cathy Geary of Wadsworth, Ohio. The 5-year-old mare is by $31.1 million dollar barrel horse sire Dash Ta Fame out of Geary's homebred champion Guys Dashing Jet. A daughter of Frenchmans Guy out of a Dash For Perks mare, Guys Dashing Jet was a leading 5-year-old futurity horse and has career earnings of $249,616, according to QData.

Geary had originally sent Ultra to Kassie Mowry for training. The mare bruised a foot as a 3-year-old and went home to heal. Geary continued Ultra's training and when she was ready for her 5-year-old campaign, she asked Schafer, who was riding Judges Heartbreaker for her, if she would take Ultra too.

"I was hesitant because I don't normally take things that I don't train," admitted Schafer, who picked the mare up at the Ardmore Futurity last September. "I knew she was out of that good Frenchmans Guy mare, and I love the Dash Ta Fame."

Ultra was a little behind and lacked hauling experience, but Geary was willing to let Schafer take the mare at her own pace. Things

BIT: Neil Merrill Short Shank Gag with a three-piece mouth

SADDLE: Martin BTR

SADDLE PAD: Classic Equine Felt

LEG GEAR: Classic Equine Legacy Flexion on front

SHOEING: Rims on front, plain on back; shod by Seth Schafer

FEED: Fortify from D&D Nutrition

HAY: Grass, alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: Equi-Boss Performance Chelator Minerals, NeutraBac pH, salt

ALTERNATIVE THERAPIES: Back On Track since its cool enough in Colorado

CONDITIONING/TRAINING REGIMEN: She's a really easy keeper so I have to ride her quite a bit to keep the weight off of her and keep her fit. She's ridden four or five days a week. I ride in the pasture a lot with my futurity horses at this point because they don't need a whole lot of training on the barrels anymore. I really just love to lope and long trot in the pasture and have them really move out in straight lines. I've been doing my four corner exercise a lot with all of my futurity horses. I'll do three days in the pasture and a couple of days in the arena, doing my four corner exercise. I like to do it because I can work on my straight lines and transitions to a smaller circle without working the barrels. It also gets them really fit with a lot of loping."

started to come together this spring with Ultra placing seventh in the aggregate at the Select Stallion Stakes Barrel Bash Futurity, third at the BBR World Finals Futurity and placing in the Top 10 at the Old Fort Days Senior Futurity.

"The last four or five futurities that I've taken her too, she's really stepped up and placed along," said Schafer.

At Montrose, they nearly swept the futurity. They won the first round in 15.57.

"The first run was probably one of the smoothest runs I've ever made," said Schafer. "She was just flawless. She did everything. I didn't have to hardly touch her. She just went and did her job. I was really impressed with her. She really showed me what she can do."

They were second in the next round with a 15.596.

"She made pretty much the same run," Schafer said. "We all know that 'perfect run' is so hard to come by. As perfect as she was in the first round, I thought, 'Man, if she could just come back with a .6 or .7 that would be good.' I couldn't imagine she could follow up that great run and honestly, she did! She had a little tiny bobble at the first where I probably just got her a little too early, but other than that she made another perfect run. She really exceeded my expectations."

Schafer also commended Geary's training.

"The mare is very honest," she said. "I've ridden a couple of horses behind Cathy now and they're all really honest. They know their lines and run straight up into the hole like they're supposed to."

Schafer is hanging out in Montrose for another week with the Colorado Classic Futurity this weekend. She has all her Ruby Buckle horses with her for that event in two weeks in South Jordan, Utah, but opted to hold them out of the Run At The Rose.

"I'll run everyone at the Colorado Classic," she explained. "I held my Ruby Buckle colts out (of the Run At The Rose) because I didn't want them to have three futurities in a row.

"I do love these futurities up here. I love the weather and the atmosphere. I love this arena. The ground is good and it's a really nice set up. I don't hardly miss these futurities. Taylor Hildreth (the producer) is a really good friend of mine, and I really want to support her too. I always look forward to this trip."

Her 7-year-old son Payson does too. It's one of the few trips he gets to make since school is out for the summer. Although the water is running too hard to go rafting on the river, there's plenty of hiking, canoeing and other outdoor activities to do.

Denny Ralls & SV Southern Comfort on Target at Summer Shootout

The recent addition of "High Roller" and similar sidepots to many of the good weekend barrel races has led to some amazing payouts! SV Southern Comfort & Denny Ralls took full advantage of this at the Summer Shootout in Waco, TX. They won the High Roller, Saturday Open, High Fees 3D, Super 5D, Rodeo Sidepot & the Adult Sidepot on their way to a whopping $12,708 paycheck! The addition of these different classes in addition to the normal 4D & 5D races has led to incredible opportunities for the weekend barrel racers throughout the country. We caught up with Ralls to ask her about her big win over the weekend!

BRR: Can you walk us through your winning run on Saturday?

Ralls: He came in running really hard; he had a great first barrel. I tried to just keep my hands down and let him work. His second was really pretty and I was getting excited. When we turned the third, I knew we had made a good run but had no idea it was that fast until I saw the clock.

BRR: Can you share with us about your gelding; where your gelding came from and his career up to now?

Ralls: We bought him as a three-year-old from Emilie Veillette who started him on barrels. I believe she got him from Kenzie Pogue. We bought him for our daughter Deven Riggins. Deven finished him and went on to derby and rodeo on him. We bought him a second time when Deven was not riding and decided she wanted to buy a house.

BRR: What makes your horse so special?

Ralls: His big heart- he tries his best every run. He is very consistent and super fun to run. I am so grateful for him. He brings me so much joy!

BRR: What are a few things you did with him to have him at his best for this weekend?

Ralls: He is easy- just put him on eurociser and long trot him on the track a couple of days prior to weekend.

BRR: Can you tell us a little about yourself and your barrel racing career?

Ralls: I live in Weatherford, Texas. My husband and I own an Oilfield Service Company. I love to run barrels. I have run barrels since I was a little girl. I try to go run somewhere a couple of times every week.

BRR: What are your future plans for you and your horse throughout the rest of the 2023?

Ralls: Go to some more barrel races and have fun!

BRR: What are three things (other than truck, trailer, horses and such) that you can't travel without?

Ralls: My husband, a diet coke, and sunglasses!

"Air-Way EQ has helped maintain my horse's respiratory health, I've noticed clearer sounding airways and greater lung capacity. I use Breathe'O2 paste pre-race, he sounds great warming up and really fires without feeling winded."

Kudos to the Ground Crew-- Katie Halbert & Miz Milania Set Arena Record at Sisters Rodeo

By Tanya Randall

Katie Halbert and her talented 6-year-old mare Miz Milania set an arena record at the $15,000-added Sisters Rodeo, held June 9-11, in Oregon.

In the rodeo's last performance, Halbert and Milania turned in a 17.19 to smash the previous benchmark of 17.30 set by Meka Farr and DD Dee Cee ("Woody") in 2019. The effort was worth $6,097. "This was my first time to come to Sisters and I think we'll be back," said Halbert, who had made the long trek north from her Texas Gulf Coast home in Port Lavaca for the Calgary Stampede qualifier in Canada.

Halbert wanted to thank the committee for everything they did to make the ground at Sisters spectacular.

"They watered the arena. They ripped it. They [dragged] before it started and in between. That's what made this run happen...the ground being safe enough. Milania is still learning how to handle the ground. For her to be able to throw down and set an arena record is huge. It gives us extra peace of mind that they worked the ground right to keep our animal athletes safe and healthy," she said.

Halbert added she had the "coolest interaction" with Sisters Arena Director Amorita Anstett following her run. Anstett and her crew had spent more than a month preparing the ground at Sisters. "After my run I was waiting to have my interview with (Cowboy Channel's) Katie Lucas and the Arena Director Amorita Anstett came over and started to cry. It just made her so happy because of how hard they worked on the ground. She said, 'This was my goal...for someone to set the arena record. Thank you!' I was like, 'Don't thank me! You were the one that made this possible.'"

"I really appreciate everything they did and how hard they worked to make the ground safe. The ground was phenomenal. They did a fantastic job. They worked so hard."

Halbert made her run just hoping to give her young mare a good experience at an outdoor rodeo.

"I was very proud of her," she said. "She's honestly the fastest horse I've ever ridden. I was not expecting that at all! Maybe that's why I did so well!"

"Before I went in the arena, I was getting really nervous. We're all competitors and we all want to win, but I told myself, 'I'm here to season this mare. This is only her third outside run ever. Don't have any expectations. I'm going to be so ecstatic if I run an 18.0. We're here to season her.' I took a big deep breath and relaxed. She was really quiet and walked right in and went with it."

Halbert was also trying a new bit on Milania, switching from the Neil Merrill short shank gag that she normally uses on her good mare Fames French Kiss—a full sister to NFR qualifier Freckles Ta Fame—to a Professional's Choice Derby.

"Thankfully it worked out!" she said. "We were running so hard across the pen to the second barrel I kind of had to grab her and she got by it. It thought, 'Man, we're definitely out of it.' I thought, 'Well, let's just go make a good third barrel and see where we're at.' I was shocked when I looked up and saw the clock!"

Milania was bred by Mickey Tiner for the racetrack. She is by leading racehorse sire and $5 million dollar barrel horse sire Tres Seis and out of the graded stakes winning Make It Anywhere mare Makeala, who won $75,979 on the track.

Although Milania didn't take to track—failing to light the board in her three starts—she was one of the leading futurity horses in 2022 under the guidance of Jodee Miller and is currently Tres Seis' No. 3 earner with $187,822 won before her Sisters victory.

Halbert, who didn't start barrel racing until she was a freshman in high school, purchased Milania last fall after losing another talented young mare Fury On The Run to a non-performance related injury.

"We were looking, but we weren't really looking," said Halbert. "It was going to take a really special horse to take her place or attempt to take her place. She wasn't for sale, but M R Performance and Jennifer Madore were willing to price her and sell her. It all ended up working out and she's trying to make a rodeo horse." Halbert is entered up over the Fourth of July but has some larger jackpots to hit in the coming weekends.

"We're kind of entered everywhere," she said, "but we're just going with the flow. We're actually on our way to the Colorado Classic in Montrose, and then we'll go over to the Ruby Buckle in South Jordan (Utah). We thought it would be a good idea to run on some good ground in a jackpot environment and get her confidence back up in case the ground wasn't very good for her, but that wasn't the case at all in Sisters."

Halbert plans on playing the long game with Milania.

"We have a plan, but we don't really have a plan," she reiterated. "We're just taking our time, going with the flow. If I feel like she's getting too wound up, I'll turn out of some rodeos and bring her back down. My goal is to have a horse at the end of the summer that we can roll on with next year."

ALL IN Barrel Race Announces New High Stakes Race

This High Stakes Race will be featured during the ALL IN in Las Vegas this December. "With the recent popularity and growth of the High Stakes format at many race events around the country, we thought there is no better place than Las Vegas for a High Stakes Race." Said Chris Woodruff Event Producer of the ALL IN.

"ESA is an associate company of NextGen Rodeo entry systems and they are our official entry partner for events we produce.

Clay Dean, of ESA/ NextGen came to me with the idea of ESA sponsoring the High Stakes in Las Vegas and here we are."

"Entries have only been open for two days for this year's ALL IN, and we are already 70% sold out.

The demand for this race in Las Vegas is high with the backdrop of NFR and everything else happening in Las Vegas," Woodruff continued.

The High Stakes addition just means more payouts and money for the racing contestants.

"if you are the type of person that you want every single run you make on your horse to be for big money, the High Stakes is for you." Woodruff concluded.

The ALL IN features the ALL IN YOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP and other Adult, Senior and equine side pots that rival any events in the country.

The ALL IN is held each December in Las Vegas during the NFR at the Orleans Hotel & Casino Arena.

This mega production transforms a basketball/hockey sports stadium into a state of the art equine arena that also features the ALL IN Breakaway Championships.

In addition to the High Stakes, another new addition for 2023 is Calf Roping featuring the Ultimate Calf Roping ALL IN.

Entries are now open for the Barrel Race at LVBarrelRace.com

ALL IN Events LLC. Is a subsidiary of Group W Productions LLC, producer of western lifestyle events for 30 years. Visit groupwproductions.com for info on all of their events.

The American Contender Tournament Returns

Las Vegas, Nevada joins lineup alongside Oklahoma City and Lexington, Kentucky to host Regional Finals

Teton Ridge, a multi-platform western lifestyle and entertainment company, announced that The American Contender Tournament will return for a second year, visiting cities nationwide throughout 2023 and hosting January 2024 Regional Semi-Finals and Finals in Las Vegas (Nevada), Oklahoma City (Oklahoma) and Lexington (Kentucky).

The American Contender Tournament West, Central and East Regional Semi-Finals attract qualifiers from both coasts as well as the Central United States to compete in the re-imagined tournament style format in hopes of making it all the way to The Crown Jewel of Rodeo™ - The American Rodeo 2024.

In 2023, more than 2,500 rodeo athletes competed across the country to vie for a chance at the $1 million bonus on the line if they made it to The American Rodeo, earning impressive money along the way. Guaranteed prize money is upwards of $540,000 for the Regional Semi-Finals and Finals. Further enhancing competitive opportunities for rodeo athletes, three lucrative American Contender Tournament Open Team Ropings will run concurrent with each of the American Contender Tournament Regional Semi-Finals events in January 2024.

"Winning at the West Regional Finals earlier this year helped me tremendously in my rodeo career and life," said Bailey Bates, a Native American Breakaway athlete, who won in Heber City, Utah. "A lot of finances add up while on the road competing. Winning a big check goes a long way to help with finances while chasing dreams."

Acquired by Teton Ridge in late 2021, The American Rodeo, celebrating its 11th year in 2024, features competitors in all eight traditional rodeo disciplines - barrel racing, breakaway roping, steer wrestling, team roping, tie down roping, bareback riding, saddle bronc and bull riding.

The only major western sports event where professional athletes compete against the "joes and janes" - fans can follow along throughout The American Contender Tournament by rooting for the underdog "Contenders" chasing big winnings along the Chiropractor and horse trainer by day, single mother Idaho barrel racer Tamara Barnhart (Athol, Idaho) was one of those that threw her hat in the ring last year. Barnhart competed in the West Region Finals after qualifying on a whim courtesy of a first-place finish at the 2023 All-In Barrel Race qualifying event in Las Vegas.

"The amount of recognition I received after competing amongst the best, within a first class production, was amazing," said Barnhart. "Getting as far as I did in the tournament really boosted my horse's popularity and I've had many people tell me how inspirational my experience and success has been. I was able to live a dream of mine, which was priceless."

Just under 100 Event Qualifiers lead to automatic qualifications or points toward the Regional Semi-Finals in January 2024:

WEST - January 11-13 in Las Vegas, Nevada at South Point Arena & Equestrian Center
CENTRAL - January 18-20 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma at Jim Norick Arena

EAST - January 25-27 in Lexington, Kentucky at AllTech Arena

annual major rodeo events which includes a bonus that will pay $1 million to any one athlete or collection of athletes who win first place in three consecutive WCRA Major Rodeos. WCRA Triple Crown of Rodeo events are broadcast on CBS network television.

The 2024 season kick-off event will mark the first time the WCRA TCR series has stopped in Guthrie in over three years. The total event payout will be $400,000, with the payout per discipline as follows:

Roughstock Payout: $42,700 per discipline

Timed Event payout: $45,200 per discipline

WCRA will hold timed event qualifying rounds on January 4 with a dedicated $15,000 ($2500 per discipline) added money. All steer wrestlers and roping disciplines will compete in two rounds of competition during the qualifying rounds, while barrel racers will have one round of competition with an optional buy-back round. All formats and progression details can be found HERE.

The top 36 timed event athletes on the WCRA leaderboard will be eligible to enter the qualifying rounds ($250 entry fee- 70% jackpot payback based), while rough stock disciplines will feature ten athletes in the progressive rounds (January 5-8).

All timed event athletes ranked 1-6 athletes on the leaderboard will be seeded directly into the progressive round with no entry fees and bypass the qualifying rounds.

Nominations for the 2024 Stampede At The E segment (SATE24) are open now and will close on December 3, 2023, at 11:59 p.m. For information on how to nominate and earn a position visit wcrarodeo.com.

HEADIN' FOR HOME

"Classic" by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Jesus impressed upon me a few days ago, to encourage us all to be excellent in all we set our hands to do.

If I take my car to the mechanic, I want them to do a good job. After all, I'm driving the thing and I don't want to end up by the side of the road. I'm sure your haying equipment needs to work and work right. Your trailer, your veterinarian, your doctor, and the list could go on and on.

What do WE do and how do WE do it? Are we duct tape individuals? Just doing what we can get by with? Arrive late and leave early? Borrow a few things from the office, because they really don't pay you enough?

These attitudes add up. And they will add up until your name, your honor, your value is diminished or damaged. The answer from the Bible is: Col. 3:23-24. "And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ."

Whether you work for yourself, or someone else, the Lord Jesus will reward you for excellence. He said so in those verses. No individual can keep Jesus from blessing us when we obey His Word! Watch for His blessing this week!

Mike and Sherry Morrison pastor "Church at the Barn" in Gillette, WY. They also travel to other areas ministering at barrel races, ranches, rodeos, churches and home Bible studies. Check out our schedule online. You can also download all Bible studies by visiting our website: m-m-m.org or contact us at: PO Box 2439, Gillette, WY 82717, 307/685-2272.
