Relocation Guide

Join us where the Bluegrass Kisses the Mountains! Estill County is home to the "Twin Cities" of Irvine and Ravenna and has a rich history and boasts beautiful scenery, small-town charm, and southern hospitality.

Nestled in rolling hills and along the Kentucky River, Estill County offers a variety of outdoor adventure! Explore from the banks of the river to the more than 500 acres of nature at Lily Mountain Nature Preserve.

Look back in time at our historic Iron Furnaces and see the town that the railroad built in Ravenna. Downtown is home to the historic Mack Theater, which is currently being restored.

However you like to spend your time, come enjoy it with us and get to know the people and places that make us not only Kentucky's Hometown, but now yours too!
