Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request dated June 26, 2017, regarding your tax-exempt status.

We issued you a determination letter in March 1971, recognizing you as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

Our records also indicate you're not a private foundation as defined under IRC Section 509(a) because you're described in IRC Section 509(a)(2).

Donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

In the heading of this letter, we indicated whether you must file an annual information return. If a return is required, you must file Form 990, 990-EZ, 990-N, or 990-PF by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required annual information return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

ABOUT US

As Blue Line Arts approaches its 60th anniversary in 2026, we celebrate a legacy rooted in accessibility, creativity, and community impact. Founded as Roseville Community Projects Incorporated on February 1, 1966, the organization began with a simple but powerful mission: to make the arts accessible to everyone. Its very first exhibition—hosted in a former Bank of America building in Downtown Roseville under the leadership of founding Board President David Fiddyment—ignited a cultural movement that would shape the creative landscape of Placer County for decades to come.

In 1974, the purchase of the historic Haman House transformed the organization into the Roseville Arts Center, a beloved gathering place for artists, students, and families for more than 30 years. As the region grew and the demand for arts engagement expanded, Blue Line Arts launched a successful capital campaign and, in 2008, opened its current 5,000-square-foot facility on Vernon Street. This new space enabled the organization to significantly broaden its exhibitions, youth education programs, and public art initiatives, becoming a dynamic hub for creative expression.

Over six decades, Blue Line Arts has become a vital cultural anchor, enriching the lives of tens of thousands of residents and visitors each year through programs that connect, uplift, and inspire.

Today, as we stand on the threshold of our 60th year, Blue Line Arts continues to demonstrate the transformative power of the arts—bringing people together, strengthening community identity, and nurturing the next generation of creative thinkers. Yet the need for support has never been greater. To continue offering free exhibitions, expand access to youth arts education, and steward public art that keeps our region vibrant and welcoming, we rely on the generosity of supporters who believe in the value of a thriving cultural ecosystem.

WHAT DO WE DO ?

ART EDUCATION

We believe every student deserves equal access to an arts education. We invite K-12 students from under-served schools to explore our exhibitions year round through guided tours, providing an in-depth understanding of the artwork on display. Each session is paired with a hands-on activity designed to explore their creativity during the interactive art-making process.

COMMUNITY

We believe in nurturing creativity by providing equal access to impactful arts experiences for people of all ages and backgrounds. Through monthly 3rd Saturday Receptions, Family Activity Days, seasonal 5 Day Art Camps and public art projects, Blue Line Arts keeps the community active and engaged by offering educational programs for free and at the lowest cost possible for children and adults.

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

We believe in fostering a vibrant local art community to promote artistic growth and professional development for creative career pathways. Blue Line Arts provides a much needed platform for both established and emerging artists. We offer exhibition space for showcasing bodies of work, commissions, teaching stipends, paid internships and volunteer opportunities

OUR GREAT TEAM

The Blue Line Arts team is a passionate group, dedicated to fostering creativity and supporting the arts and arts education. With a shared commitment to enriching the cultural landscape of Placer County, our staff, board members and volunteers work tirelessly to offer innovative programs, engaging exhibitions, and opportunities for both emerging and established artists. A key focus is creative workforce development and arts education for youth, providing culturally responsive learning experiences that inspire and nurture the next generation of artists.
