ABOUT

The Studios at 234 is a shared creative workspace and an entrepreneurial incubator located on Reisterstown's historic Main Street.

Designed for artists, makers, and creative entrepreneurs, the program provides space to develop work, explore ideas, and build momentum without the pressure of operating a retail storefront.

COST

Studios at 234 is offered as a below market, low to no cost creative workspace designed to reduce barriers for emerging artists and creative entrepreneurs.

The program prioritizes access, affordability, and support, pairing shared studio space with programming that helps creatives develop skills, connections, and sustainable practices while growing on Main Street.

Participants receive access to workshops, peer learning, and business resources, along with opportunities to connect directly with local landlords, mentors, and fellow creatives. This model supports makers, artisans, and creative start-ups as they build momentum and explore next steps within Reisterstown's historic Main Street district.

Q2 APRIL – JUNE

Q4 OCT – DEC

1

QUARTER BEGINS

Move in, orientation, and set up. Cohort is introduced & goals for the session are established. Meet & Greet party for all participants in program is held.

CREATIVE DEVELOPMENT PHASE

Independent work in studio while connecting through shared space, collaboration, and peer learning. Workshops & skill-building sessions take place during this period.

3

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Open Studio days and public events invite the public into the space, offering rotating creative work, demonstrations, and conversations with artists.

4

WRAP-UP & TRANSITION

The cohort wraps up projects, shares progress & prepares for transition. Next cohort moves in, bringing fresh ideas, new workshops, and evolving creative experiences.

CONCLUSION & CONTACT

Studios at 234 reflects Reisterstown Main Street's belief that creativity belongs at the heart of a strong, sustainable community. By offering accessible studio space, structured support, and rotating public-facing programming, the program invites the public into the creative process, creative making and small-scale enterprise visible, approachable and rooted in place.

Organized and operated exclusively for charitable & educational purposes, the Studios at 234 directly supports our mission to strengthen Main Street through creativity, collaboration & opportunity, while contributing to long-term cultural & economic vitality in Reisterstown's historic district.
