Kelly Allen & Heaven A Good Time at Lone Star Shootout Futurity

By Tanya Randall

Kelly Allen spent all last week visualizing a Lone Star Shootout Futurity win aboard her family's homebred Heaven A Good Time ("Rico"). The Stephenville, Texas, barrel racer and business owner affirmed her intentions by confessing her plan to her loved ones on Saturday.

"I've been working all week visualizing and focusing on doing my job and manifesting that stuff," she admitted. "I told them about it. I didn't think I had a chance to win the average, but I was going to win the round. All week I was thinking about winning the average, but I thought there's no way I can do both, but I can win the round. Then it happened!"

Allen and her 5-year-old gelding won the second round and aggregate in the $25,000-added, 184-entry Lone Star Shootout Futurity, held January 1-4 in the Circle T Arena at Hamilton, Texas. The victory was worth $19,602 with $13,468 coming from the Futurity plus $6,134 in carryovers to sidepots.

"His first run was pretty wild," said Allen of their 15.481 that placed ninth in the first round on Friday. "He really got past the first the barrel. I told myself that he lost three-tenths at the first barrel and he still ran a 15.4. His second and third were pretty good. I knew if I could just smooth out the first that the clock would take care of itself. He's just so fast."

She spent Saturday manifesting her vision of winning the next round.

"On Saturday I walked him around the pattern four or five times, concentrating on his foot placement and my hand placement at a walk," she said. "(I) woke up that morning and took 10 minutes to visualize and think about it, then I felt mentally prepared and it worked!"

Allen knew the key to winning was a better first barrel.

"The second round, I just told myself, 'Let's just try to be smooth and get our first barrel, and sure enough, I was right," she said of their victorious 15.233. "The clock took care of itself because he had a good first barrel."

Rico is the product of four generations of Allen family breeding. His great-granddam, Foolish Moon, by the stakes winning Top Moon, Sugar Bars stallion Advocate, carried Allen's mother Lori first. Allen was in elementary school when she got to run Foolish Moon.

Her mother later bred the mare to Senor Edition, a grandson of Advocate. That cross produced aged event champion and family winner Special K Edition, a gelding, and Rag Doll Edition, a mare that had her competitive career cut short due to a bout with Equine Protozoal Myeloencephalitis.

Rag Doll Edition produced Allen's multiple open and pro rodeo winner Charge My Corona ("Rona"), by Hot Corona. Although they'd bred the extremely fast mare to more working-bred barrel lines, it was the cross with speedy JL Dash Ta Heaven, one Allen was initially skeptical of, that proved to be the best so far.

"Obviously they're fast, but some are a little hotter," she said. "Rona wasn't necessarily hot, but she was too fast for her own good. So far ("Rico") is taking Rona's good traits and he doesn't have her bad traits. He's a lot more consistent than she was. He's a lot rounder and takes a pull better."

Allen said Rico is "insanely athletic."

"I don't think his heart rate or respiratory rate increased after his run," she said. "He's just an athlete. It's so easy for him. If he has a semi-decent run he clocks. He's a lot like his mom in that regard."

Doug Schrutka started Rico under saddle and then Ryan Ruthven put some more miles on the gelding before Allan took over his training.

"I told mom and dad from the very beginning that I thought he was going to be a winner," she said. "He was always pretty turny and natural in the turn. We definitely had our challenges. Up until the end of summer, early fall, he would still grab his butt. I was always a little scared of him because he's very fast, very quick and strong. He can unseat me really easily, so when he would do his little kick up things in the exhibitions when turning a barrel, I'd be hanging on looking really scared, because I was!

"As far as actually training him, he was easy, especially once he got over the colt freshness. He's always been very business minded, very confident, nothing in the world bothers him. He goes in to do his job and hunts the barrels and that's it. He's the most grown up colt that I've had at this stage, and usually the fillies mature faster. He's always been very mature other than his little kick outs when he's proud of himself."

Allen is hopeful the Lone Star Shootout victory marks a turning point in her program.

"It's been a rough last couple of years," she admitted. She lost both of her foals last year and a promising 3-year-old to a possibly life-ending injury. "If it wasn't starting to turn around soon, I was about to sell everything quick! I was getting really defeated over the whole horse thing. I thought maybe I don't need to do this. It's going to have to turn around this year. Hopefully, it is!"

LONE STAR SHOOTOUT NOTES:

Lone Star Shootout Derby Champions

— Chicado Moon & Makenzie Mayes

- Chicado Moon & Makenzie Mayes ran a 15.208 to win the Derby, High Roller, Mega Bucks & the Super 5 D. With all the carryovers; the team banked $25,974 on the weekend!
- Mayes was the 2025 WPRA Resistol Rookie Barrel Racer of the Year. Earning $83,912 in 2025. She ended the year #24 in the World overall.
- Chicado Moon had earned $210,879 in her career before this weekend according to QStallions. With the $25,974 haul; this pushed her career earnings to $236,853.
- Both of Mayes horses, Chicado Moon & Kita Rita, that helped her to her Rookie Title are by $1 Million Sire Guys Canyon Moon. Chicado Moon & Kita Rita are both mares as well.
- Chicado Moon's pedigree is full of barrel racing winners. Her sire Guys Canyon Moon was a winning barrel horses as was her dam sire Chicados Cash and grand dam Return Of The Bully. Nearly every line in her pedigree is full on barrel horses!

Lone Star Shootout Slot Race Champion

— Jh Firewater Honor & Dusky Lynn Hall

- JH Firewater Honor & Dusky Lynn Hall won yet another big title smoking a 15.013 to win the Lone Star Shootout Slot Race while running the fastest time of the weekend!
- Hall also placed her $1 Million earning horse Aint Seen Famous Yet in 4th place with a time of 15.123.
- In the Slot Race alone Hall won $25,000! Between all her horses at the event she won an amazing $47,251!
- Hall rode JH Firewater Honor, Aint Seen Famous Yet and Chasin A Win for her winnings.
- JH Firewater Honor is by $5 Million Sire Firewaterontherocks; who also was a big time barrel horse himself. Winning futurity, derby and rodeos to the tune of $275k+! JH Firewater Honor carries the barrel blood all through his bottom side with his dam sire being leading barrel sire from the past Packin Sixes and another one of the foundational barrel sires, Jet Of Honor, as the sire of his second dam!
- Just a couple weeks ago Hall dominated the Triple Crown 100 Slot Race and Barrel Race to the tune of $114,421 combine that with her Lone Star Shootout earnings of $47,251 she has won $161,672 in the past couple weeks!

Extra Effort Pays for Ann McGilchrist & Fling Ta California at California Circuit Finals

By Tanya Randall

Two-time California Circuit Champion Ann (Scott) McGilchrist added another California Circuit Finals Rodeo Championship to her resume in Red Bluff, December 29-31.

The stuntwoman from nearby Marysville, California, rode her homebred gelding Fling Ta California (“Kid”) to the $6,646 victory. McGilchrist said she and Kid had to “knock the dust” off on their first run of 13.86.

“I hadn’t run him since October,” she explained. “There wasn’t a whole lot to go to and I was working, flying to Texas to work, and then with the virus (EHV-1), they shut everything down including the big jackpots I was hoping to go to before the circuit finals. Their 13.73 split fourth in the second round with Hayle Gibson-Stillwell, who won the year-end circuit championship, and Emily Harryman.

“His second run was a little bit better,” she said. “For his third run, I thought, ‘I’ve got nothing to lose here. I’m going to let it all hang out, ride hard and aggressive.’”

McGilchrist also went all in on Kid’s warm up. The gelding has had a catching stifle that never resolved with age. To prevent it from becoming a problem, she rides over ground poles at home and pulls a tire, which makes the biggest difference. When she’s able, she’ll pull the tire before she makes a run.

“I try to stay away from everybody and pull it just a little bit,” she explained. “It helps so much. At the circuit finals, the first and second round, I didn’t pull my tire. It was rainy and there’s a lot of asphalt, so there wasn’t a lot of room for me to pull my tire. For the last round, I was like, ‘I’m getting my tire out.’ I was out pulling my tire in the rain. I feel like if I don’t use it, he can’t push off as hard and leave a barrel as hard as he could.”

Kid responded by “smoking a run.” Their 13.32 was the fastest of the rodeo by 2/10ths.

“I just couldn’t believe how fast he was!” she said. “After two runs, I was sitting sixth in the average. It was late at night and New Year’s Eve. It was dark outside, rainy and cold. I had my mom and my daughter. My husband was judging. My plan was to load up and get out of there as soon as I was done running. My daughter came running out and said ‘You’ve got to go back in there! They’re going to give you a buckle and stuff!’ It was a fun night!”

McGilchrist raised Kid, a 9-year-old by 12.7 million dollar sire A Streak Of Fling, out of California Fame, by Dash Ta Fame. California Fame is a full sister to Fallin For Fame (“Buzz”), who carried McGilchrist to her two circuit championships in 2014 and 2015. She initially leased their dam, Immunity, a daughter of Merridoc, to breed specifically to Dash Ta Fame, a process that took a lot of stunt “falling” to finance.

Buzz qualified McGilchrist for three National Circuit Finals Rodeos—now NFR Open—but she only went to two as she was pregnant with her and husband Brad’s daughter, Abbey, 9, one of those years.

“They’ve been very good to me, for sure,” said McGilchrist. Kid had qualified McGilchrist for the 2024 California Circuit Finals, too, but he had fractured his hock at Gooding, Idaho, that August and was out recovering.

“He had surgery to put a screw in it,” she said. McGilchrist had Kid back for the spring run of California rodeos but only went to 28 total in 2025. “In the back of my mind, I’m always thinking, ‘Is he fully recovered? Is something bothering him?’ It was really exciting for all of us to know that he can still run that good and is feeling good.”

McGilchrist and Kid won’t get rolling again until the spring run of California rodeos. She’ll evaluate how much more she goes afterward. Her daughter, however, is very on board with her mother hauling more.

“She’s my biggest fan and cheerleader,” she said. “She was in the stands with signs. She’s so excited. She’s like, ‘We’ve got to go harder, mommy!’ I’m like, ‘You want to go to more rodeos?’ She said, ‘Well, you’ve got to make it Vegas!’”

THE RUNDOWN w/Kelly Allen

Fling Ta California “Kid” - “Tall and about 1300 lbs.”

BIT: Kerry Kelley DC Magnum with a twisted wire mouthpiece

SADDLE: Master

SADDLE PAD: EquFlx

LEG GEAR: Professional’s Choice on all four

SHOEING: Shod by husband Brad McGilchrist

FEED: A little whole oats for supplements, bran occasionally

HAY: Alfalfa

SUPPLEMENTS: MVP Exceed 6-Way, Race Today

TRAINING/CONDITIONING REGIMEN: “Just a lot of strength and conditioning. I don’t work the barrels on him a lot at all. Lot of straight lines, long trotting. His stifles have always kind of caught. It’s kind of silly, but I pull a tire. It just stretches that leg out, so it doesn’t pop while I’m running barrels. A lot of mine have done that, but usually they grow out of it, but he never did. I don’t have any hills where I live, so I’ll trot over some poles, but the tire works the best.”

SPONSORS: Master Saddles, EquFlx

THANKS: To Master Saddles and EquFlx for the new set for the circuit finals, husband Brad for shoeing her horse and veterinarian Dylan Costello. Special thanks to Ken Cook for working the ground for the circuit finals.

Cowboy Channel Delivers Record Growth During Wrangler National Finals Rodeo

As rodeo continues its surge in national popularity, Cowboy Channel is broadening how and where fans experience the sport. One year after being acquired by Teton Ridge, the premier Western sports and entertainment company, the network delivered record growth across linear television, streaming, and digital platforms during the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo (NFR), the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association's 10-day championship event.

Across its full NFR broadcast coverage, Cowboy Channel reached a total audience of 6.76 million, representing 72% year-over-year growth. And, according to newly released Nielsen data, Cowboy Channel linear averaged 232,000 viewers between the full duration of the NFR (December 4–13), ranking No. 21 among all cable networks during the NFR window and surpassed established national networks including A&E, TNT and Comedy Central.

Heightened fan participation further amplified viewership through Pro Fantasy Rodeo (PFR), Cowboy Channel's fantasy gaming platform. PFR invites fans to draft and track rodeo athletes in real time, turning nightly competition into an interactive viewing experience. During the NFR, the PFR Daily Game grew 97.5% year-over-year, while PFR Big Game participation increased 25%, encouraging fans to follow athletes night after night, reinforcing repeat viewing.

Additional NFR audience engagement across Cowboy Channel ecosystem includes: 100M views across Cowboy Channel social and digital platforms (+81% YoY) and 150K new followers gained

Cowboy Channel+ (streaming platform)

Subscriptions up 36% YoY - 1.44M livestream sessions (+27% YoY) - 277K video-on-demand plays (+73% YoY) - Female viewership was up 16% YoY

The performance reflects a year-long transformation of Cowboy Channel, including upgraded production quality, the integration of AI-powered broadcast tools, and an expanded digital strategy designed to meet fans on their terms.

"Rodeo has always had one of the most passionate fan bases in sports, but the opportunity now is scale," said Ande Wall, EVP and Head of Content & Programming at Cowboy Channel. "By pairing original programming with live competition and interactive experiences like Pro Fantasy Rodeo, we're building sustained engagement - not just tuning in for one night, but returning throughout the event and for years to come."

Beyond the broadcast, Cowboy Channel extended the NFR experience into real-world activations, including Rodeo Vegas, a 10-night live music and after-hours series presented by Rock & Roll Denim, and an exclusive preview event for its newest lifestyle docuseries, Diamond Cross Ranch, presented by American Hat Co.

Cowboy Channel's NFR performance underscores its evolution into a modern, multi-platform sports media business where storytelling, participation, and live competition work together to drive growth.

Munsell Wins First World Title in Breakaway Roping, George Ropes Her First Average Title

The 2025 Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping presented by Tito's Handmade Vodka came to a dramatic finish with Taylor Munsell being crowned the 2025 WPRA World Champion Breakaway Roper.

"I want to start off by saying thank God," said Munsell. "He's blessed me in so many ways. Through all the trials, they've all led me here to this so I'm so thankful for everything he's given me and done for me. I've always just wanted to affect others through this. I'm super glad that I'm getting to live my dream outside of the arena by doing that and then also doing this for a living is just awesome."

Munsell of Alva, Oklahoma, came in with the No. 1 back number and after a rough start with only two qualified times during the first five rounds, she rebounded like the veteran she is to post times in all five rounds on the second day to finish the 2025 season on top. With a share of two round wins, the sixth and 10th, she solidified her first world title finishing the year with $209,021.

"I started it off a little rougher than I wanted to, but I knew in my mind that I deserved to be here," noted Munsell. "I had so many great people in my corner and I got a lot of good advice. I got a little bit of bad advice, but we put it all to use and got it turned around. Those two girls that were behind me definitely put the pressure on me, which I thought it made it pretty exciting, and it was so fun to be a part of."

Munsell had set a new regular season earnings record in 2025 and now she holds the record for most money won in the WPRA by a breakaway roper in a single season. Actually, she was not the only one to surpass the $200,000 mark for the season, but reserve world champion Shelby Boisjoli-Meged finished with $204,730 and Josie Conner was third with $203,735

Rylee George was the most consistent roper over the 10 rounds of the 2025 Wrangler National Finals Breakaway Roping and left Cowtown Coliseum as the average champion. She set a new average record in a time of 29.0 seconds on 10 head, surpassing the old record set in 2022 by Cadee Williams with a 31.9. She was the only one in the field of 15 to have 10 clean runs.

"It means the world to me," stated George, who last year left with the Betty Gayle Cooper Fast Time Award. "I'm blessed to be here. Thank you to Jill Tanner for letting me ride that great black horse of hers. He's really honest for these calves and this fast start."

Winning the 2025 Betty Gayle Cooper Fast Time award, presented by the Cowgirl Museum was Aspen Miller at her first NFBR. Miller recorded a 1.9 second run in the eighth-round tying Hali Williams and Joey Williams with the fastest time. Miller was awarded the title via the tiebreaker which reverted back to who placed higher in the average. Miller's only bobble came in the seventh round with a no time.

"I've always loved to rope fast," stated Miller. "After my seventh calf, not doing any good, I knew I wanted to go at one and see what it did and it worked out. This is a very prestigious award to receive and I'm very, very thankful for everyone involved."

She went on to talk about the individual the award is named after.

"It's so special. It's women like that who give us these opportunities. They set the pathway and they're the reason we're here today and I couldn't be more thankful."

HEADIN' FOR HOME

by Sherry Morrison // Triple M (Mike Morrison Ministries)

Happy New Year! Are we all thinking about change for 2026? It's kinda traditional. Those resolutions. I was trying to remember if I had EVER finished the year with the changes I wanted to make at the beginning of the year. Couldn't think of one. That's sad. Because obviously, I felt like I DID need to change something.

A few days ago, the Lord gave me a word for 2026. It was 2 Cor. 2:14. "Now thanks be to God who always causes us to triumph...."

If our most wonderful Lord ALWAYS causes us to triumph, we certainly can make necessary changes to anything in us that may not 'be up to snuff'. (That's an old phrase!).

If the Lord is pulling our hearts toward a change, let's just go for it. We cannot fail and we'll be the better for it. You go first. LOL!
